Cap lacks LAC--acquires ARC

Just when you thought you had all this College's acronyms straight, they're changing them on you. The Learning Assistance Centre has now become ARC—the Achievement Resource Centre and this term they will be distributing their ARCané bits of knowledge through a series of workshops, the most immediately upcoming of which are:

Experience New York

If you have been mulling over the possibility of joining the College's third New York Experience tour, which will be happening from May 9-20, now is the time to make a decision. Let us tempt you with a few of the items of the itinerary: Rockefeller Centre, the Diamond Exchange, United Nations, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Greenwich Village, Soho, Chinatown, Harlem, Museum of Natural History, Central Park, Statue of Liberty, Wall Street, Stock Exchange, Bloomingdales, Macy's, Saks 5th Avenue, Brooklyn, Coney Island, Bronx Zoo, Guggenheim Museum and the Atlantic Ocean.

If you can't resist this, the price is $1450 including rooms, breakfasts, some suppers, four plays, museum entrances and lectures, all touring and transfer from the airport (and airfare of course). If you want information contact Paul Azaroff or Rose Naumann soon.

Review gets increased funding

Our illustrious publication, the Capilano Review, has received a $15,000 grant from Canada Council—a lift of $3,000 over their last grant. Editor Ann Rosenberg is naturally pleased. "Needless to say we are happy with this and the grant will go a long way towards paying the printing bills for the coming year's issues," she said.

Rosenberg has also been working on a revision of the magazine's constitution which should be finished soon.

Travelogue tickets nearly gone

If you hurry, there may still be a few tickets left for the travelogues in the Community Education Armchair Traveller series. The series includes five presentations with slides and detailed narratives by faculty members. The shows will be held Wednesday nights starting February 2 and are free, HOWEVER due to limited seating space anyone wishing to go to a show must get a ticket from C. Ed. ahead of time. And ahead of time means now since the tickets are going fast. Here is the lineup:

FEBRUARY 2: Terry Brown (Geography) and last year's Nepal expedition.

FEBRUARY 9: Keith Wade (Biology) presents his trip to China in 1981 as a member of the Canadian Botanical delegation organized by UBC and the Canadian Department of Agriculture.

FEBRUARY 16: Paul Azaroff (Media Resources) and highlights of the New York Experience tours in 1981 and 1982.

FEBRUARY 23: Josephine Jungic (Fine Arts) and the Fine Arts summer credit courses to Florence.

MARCH 2: Vicki Troup (Biology) talks about her experiences living and teaching elementary school in Malaysia. For information call Joy Smith, local 325.

Quiz answers

In reply to the note from 2=F C P (2 = Frustrated Crazy Puzzlers) here is the answer to the brain teaser quiz published in the Informer in November.

- 2 = Territories in Canada
- 2 = Cities in the Dickens Tale
- 3 = Witches in MacBeth (by Shakespeare)
- 8 = King Henrys of England
- 25 = Pennies in Two Bits
- 30 = Cents for a Postage Stamp (well so much for that one)
- 35 = Work Hours in a Week (for Capilano College Staff)
- 39 = Steps (in the Hitchcock Movie)
- 50 = Years in a Half Century
- 79 = Seats in the Alberta Legislature (well, this was published just a couple of days after their election)
- 99 = Bottles of Beer on the Wall
- 115 = Years since Canadian Confederation
- 10,000 = Days of War in Viet Nam
- 1,000,000 = Population of Greater Vancouver (approximately)

For the answer to 28, the author of this puzzle offers everyone an apology. I was quite certain that there were 28 miles in a marathon but having just checked a reference book I have discovered that there are in fact 26. Sorry.

Interested in Micro-computers?

All faculty and staff who are interested in Micro-computers are invited to attend a meeting for Micro-computer users on Tues January 25 from 4-6 pm in room C104.
